MAKING CEMENT

The major raw materials for making cement are limestone and clay. In Nigeria, there are large deposits of limestone at Nkalagu, Ewekoro, Ukpilla, etc. Cement factories have been located in or around these areas because of the large deposits of limestone.

Limestone is processed into powdered form (calcium oxide) and mixed with clay to produce cement.