Bootstrap Jumbotron

A jumbotron indicates a big grey box for calling extra attention to some special content or information.

Inside a jumbotron you can put nearly any valid HTML, including other Bootstrap elements/classes.

Use a element with class .jumbotron to create a jumbotron:

```
 ...
```

Full Width Jumbotron

If you want to a full-widht jumbotron without rounded borders, add the .jumbotron-fluid class and a .container or .container-fluid inside of it:

```

  ...

```
